of the Year, and then Senator Nichol will introduce our 1985 Young Mother representative. Thank you.

SENATOR HOAGLAND: Thank you very much. Mr. President, Mr. Speaker and colleagues, it is certainly a pleasure, a personal pleasure for me to be able to introduce Mrs. Louise Cimino to you today. Her family grew up next door to our family in Omaha, on the same street. It was my pleasure to be able to play with the kids a lot. I, of course, knew the mother, mother of ten children. She is certainly a dynamo. Her children always came first. She was a strict disciplinarian, always knew where her children were and what they were doing, an ideal selection for Mother of the Year this year. It is my pleasure to introduce Mrs. Louise Cimino. Thank you.

MRS. CIMINO: Thank you, Senator Hoagland and members of the Senate. I am very proud to be the 1985 Mother of the Year. I want to thank the Nebraska Women's Association. I am certain that there are many mothers worthy of this honor. I feel very proud to be part of this fine organization. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Senator Nichol.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Members of the Legislature, ladies and gentlemen, it is my privilege, again, to introduce the Young Mother of the Year. She is Cindy Lebruska of Mitchell, Nebraska. Her husband is a farmer and she is a registered nurse and works at the West Nebraska General Hospital. She has two young sons and she is one of several young mothers from my district. I don't know how it happens, but I guess we have all the good young mothers in the state because I think it is about fifth or sixth time since I've been here that it's been my pleasure to introduce the Young Mother of the Year. So it is my pleasure to introduce Cindy Lebruska of Mitchell, Nebraska.

MRS. LEBRUSKA: Thank you. I am very proud and honored to be here today. I want to thank the American Mothers Association for making all this possible. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Thank you very much. Thank you very much, Mrs. Fry and Speaker Nichol and Senator Hoagland for bringing these lovely ladies into our Chamber. If you will now escort them out of the Chamber, the Mother of the Year
